

MACHINERY
SERVICE PROVIDER

Company	Location	Country	Name	Title	Email	Phone	Comments
Axim Technology	Georgia	USA	Jeff Natalino	General Manager	jeff@aximtechno.com;	770-818-0114	We are a machinery dealer with access to manufacturing machines for face masks, filters and body bags.
Burr Oak Tool Inc.	Michigan	USA	Newell Franks	CEO	newell2@burroak.com;	269-651-9393	Our shop could produce any needed mechanical parts for any machines producing the items above. We would also be capable of building said machines.
Transformit	Maine	USA	Carissa Parent	Production Manager	cparent@transformit.com;	207-856-9911,x124	We have machines and stitchers and are happy to try to help if we are provided patterns and fabric.
Gerber Technology	Connecticut	USA	Leonard Marano		Leonard.Marano@gerbertechnology.com;	860-593-8875
DAP America, Inc.	Georgia	USA	Mariano Amezcua	President	mamezcua@dapamerica.com;	770-446-8162
Lacom GmbH			Achim Schaile	Sales Director	a.schaile@lacom-online.de;	-266-4812
Shemesh Automation	London	UK	Mark Calliari	Director - North American Operations	mark.c@shemeshautomation.com;	920-918-0437
multitek Inc	Wisconsin	USA	wayne grobner	president	wayne@multitekinc.net;	770-380-0183	Can provide ultrasonic sewing machines within 2 weeks for making hospital gowns, protective apparel
Nordson Corporation	Ohio	USA	Alan Ramspeck	Global Portfolio Manager	aramspeck@nordson.com;	770-497-3455	We are a machinery subsystem equipment producer. We do not alone have the capability to produce the aforementioned products.
Venus Group, Inc.	South Carolina	USA	Dennis Jackson		djackson@venusgroup.com	803-899-4539	Plant in Ft Lawn, SC and Foothill Ranch, CA has highly automated machines and skilled sewers; interested in dedicating resources.
Advanced Canvas & Upholstery Services			Stephan Kamark		advancedcanvasservices@gmail.com	805-443-5992	facility with industrial sewing, miller facric welding, digital patterning and CAD capabilities, laser cutting, wter jet cutting and 3D printing. Suppliers are ready to ship them fabric to help produce mattress covers, etc.
AirTex Group			Mark Phillips		mark.phillips@airtexgroup.com	720-272-6965	The Airtex Group has the machinery and skilled workforce needed to make cut and sew face masks, bedding, drapes and other sewn goods needed during the COVID-19 crisis.
Exacta Garment LLC			Alan Haddad		alan@exactagarment.net	917-881-8018	www.exactagarment.net. They have state-of-the-art high volume computerized cutters.
Evolution St. Louis			John Elmuccio		jelmuccio@evolutionstl.com	908-868-8284	High-tech fait-bed knitting facility offering manufacturing services in developing reusable safety masks.
Frost River	Minnesota	USA	Dillon Malay		dmalay@frostriver.com	218-623-6368	Facility in Duluth, MN specializing in wxed canvas and leather products willing to convert all efforts to PPE equipment -- how can they help
Haworth Wood Seating			Lindsay Dilley		Lindsay.Dilley@Haworth.com	336-689-0603	Haworth is interested in donating resources to the cause in the manufacture of facemasks. We have CNC fabric cutting equipment and sewing capacity to assist in the cause. We would like to get the specifications, instructions, and sources of materials to manufacture the facemasks in our facilities.
Samantas Platform			Samanta Cortes			551-206-8005	Embroidery machines repurposed for masks. Willing to share computer programs and provide techniques
Sleep Number Corporation			Hunter Mottel		hunter.mottel@sleepnumber.com	803-215-4715	50 machines
SPD / Shoreline			Steven Prehoda		sprehoda@spdshoreline.com	631-454-8337	NY apparel company looking to retro-fit machinery to assist
UCS Inc.	North Carolina	USA	Zack Schwartz		zackschwartz@ucsspirit.com	201-803-2506	Athletic equipment manufacturer in NC with 20 sewing machines to make masks, splash proof aprons, vinyl shelters, mats or mattresses for beds. Have sewing and foam fabrication, metal fabrication and wood shop on site.
Tempur Sealy International, Inc.			Gary Ford		gary.ford@tempursealy.com	269-921-0294	I've seen the releases regarding the coalition formed by Hanesbrand, Fruit of the Loom, and others to build face masks. Tempur-Sealy is looking for ways to help support relief efforts associated with the COVID-19 outbreak. Our bedding factories have sewing capabilities. Is there an opportunity to assist in this effort?

MACHINERY
SERVICE PROVIDER

Company	Location	Country	Name	Title	Email	Phone	Comments
The Fox Company	North Carolina	USA	Nicky Keylin		nberzack@thefoxcompany.com	704-399-4581	According to a press release that I have just read, American textile companies are joining forces to manufacture medical masks. John E. Fox, dba The Fox Company (founded in 1930) is based in Charlotte, NC and we offer complete service to the sewn products industry. We sell sewing, spreading, cutting and finishing machines as well as parts and supplies for the Cutting and Sewing Rooms. As primary distributors, we offer both Genuine and Generic parts for all the major brands including, but not limited to Brother, Clinton, Durkopp-Adler, Eastman, Groz Beckert needles, Juki, Kansai, Mellow, Organ needles, Pegasus, Pfaff, Schmetz needles and Union Special.
Brother Intl. Corp.			Rick Frye	Director of Sales, Industrial Sewing Machine Group	Rick.Frye@brother.com	908-655-9446	we are interested in making a donation of sewing machines to these companies to help further this effort